Bank of Santa Clarita Purchases New Headquarters, Plans to Open 4th Branch

Strengthens Commitment to the Santa Clarita Community

SANTA CLARITA, CALIFORNIA - December 15, 2009. Bank of Santa Clarita (OTC BB: BSCA.OB) today announced the purchase of a building which the Bank intends to become its new headquarters. In addition, executive management has announced plans to open a 4th branch in the facility, subject to regulatory approval. The building is centrally located near the Westfield Town Center Mall, as well as city and business offices.

James D. Hicken, President and Chief Executive Officer, commented, "Moving our headquarters to the center of the city benefits everyone. It strengthens our commitment to Santa Clarita, makes us more visible and accessible to business and community leaders, and provides easy access to consumers. It's also a demonstration of our vision and a result of our steady growth over the past five years."

Bank of Santa Clarita plans to move its administrative and executive headquarters from its current location at 27433 Tourney Road to the new building over the next 12 to 15 months. A new branch, Bank of Santa Clarita's 4th branch in Santa Clarita, is also planned, subject to regulatory approval.

Frank D. Di Tomaso, Chairman of the Board, commented, "In today's economic climate, we are pleased that we can demonstrate our stability and long-term commitment to the community in this way. It makes us proud to live and work here in Santa Clarita, alongside our clients."

The building is currently occupied by Ethan Allen, located at 26350 Citrus Street, Santa Clarita, California and is a 15,240 sq. ft. commercial building.
